

The Sea Pool

With Connell missing, Iris feels her life is unravelling around her. Convinced he is lying injured somewhere, or worse, she sets out to find him. In her lonely, desperate search she confronts her own long-buried fears and obstacles. As she gradually emerges to face a new, sinister, challenge, her life takes a direction she could never have imagined. Set in Tasmania and New South Wales, this is an Australian mystery about love and family ties, but also human greed and brutality - towards the natural world and other humans. It explores the way past events influence present states of mind, and how commitment and connection can bring strength.
