

Apex Fallen

Captain Dan Martin and Sergeant Lance Holland had been trained in modern counter-insurgency tactics; prepared to clear, hold and build in the hell-holes of the Middle East. They hadn't expected to have to fight inside a shattered America, but now they have no choice as a new, twisted image of man's aggression, devoid of humanity, is threatening to topple the remnants of civilization everywhere. This is a glimpse of an apocalyptic future where ordinary men and women have to fight, hour by hour and yard by yard, if they want to survive and to shape the world of tomorrow. In this future there is no safe-zone and no easy way out; it is a future where the enemy are predators, vying for dominance and where survivors have to grapple with their own excesses of good and evil. It is a world governed by the harsh, unforgiving choices that end only in life or death. It is an America that is now up for the taking by whomever and whatever proves themselves the strongest. America, and the world, will now have to do exactly what Dan and Lance had trained for: clear, hold and build, in the face of a new enemy.
