

For several days in a row it was just a typical, run-of-the-mill backpacking trip; exploring, fishing, foraging, building fires. Then one evening something happened that would forever change his life! Not only did it affect how he was feeling at that moment, but it reached-back into his past and sent ripples into his future. It was a chance encounter that would ultimately redefine his place in the world. But, more than that, far beyond anything the intuitive Preston could ever have imagined, it was a prelude to a series of events that would fill his empty soul and re-ignite his passion for life. The reason for his emotional strife was a broken-heart, brought about by the untimely deaths of his beloved wolf-dogs, after which his life had become merely an “existence”, causing his soul to wither a little more each day, and his zeal to fade right along with it. So escape with Preston into a pristine and unknown wilderness, where fond memories of love, between a man and his dogs, are resurrected by current events, giving him salvation from the sorrow which had plagued him, providing the spark he desperately needed too once again live life to the fullest. It's a story that will lift your spirit and inspire your imagination!
